1. Online Marketing Technique Used by Two Apps

Instagram

Technique: Influencer Marketing
Instagram partners with popular influencers and creators who promote new features or trends to their followers. This helps the app reach a large audience and attract new users.

Zomato

Technique: Referral Program
Zomato offers referral codes and discounts to both the referrer and the new user. This encourages sharing among friends and helps attract new customers quickly.

3. Five Types of Online Ads I've Seen

Type of Ad	Platform	What Made It Noticeable or Skippable
Video Ads (Skippable)	YouTube	Noticeable visuals and story, but can skip after 5 seconds.
Image Ads	Instagram	Attractive images with offers, easy to understand in one glance.
Carousel Ads	Instagram	Multiple images in one ad, swipe-able and informative.
Sponsored Stories	Instagram	Full screen and engaging, feels like a natural story.
Display Banner Ads	Websites/Apps	Usually at the top or bottom; sometimes ignored.

4. Plan to Promote a New Playlist Feature

INTRODUCING SMART PLAYLISTS

Music that understands your mood.

SEO Optimization:
Create a blog and landing page for the new playlist feature using keywords like “AI playlist,” “mood based playlist,” and “smart playlist app.”

Social Media Promotion:
Post reels, stories, and teasers showing how the new playlist feature works with trending music.

Email Campaign:
Send personalized emails to users introducing the new feature with a “Try Now” button.

Influencer Partnerships:
Collaborate with music influencers and creators to showcase the feature in their content.

User Engagement Campaign:
Encourage users to create and share their playlists using a hashtag like #MySmartPlaylist.
